

Cherry Pop Events' Tips & Tricks for Writing Wedding Vows

Writing your own vows can feel trickier than pinning on a boutonniere with fake nails—but sugar, it doesn't have to be! Here's how to put your heart on paper without losing your cool.

💡 Tips for Getting Started

- Brain Dump First: Jot down words, stories, and quirks you love about your partner. Don't edit yet—just pour it out.
- Think “Us,” Not Just “I”: Include moments, dreams, and promises that highlight your partnership.
- Keep It Real: Humor, honesty, and sincerity shine brighter than a Hallmark cliché.

📝 A Simple Vows Outline

1. Opening: Share what you love most about your partner.
2. Story: Mention a funny or heartfelt memory.
3. Promises: List 3–5 meaningful vows (“I promise to…”).
4. Future: Dream about what's ahead together.
5. Closing: End with your personal signature line—something sweet, sassy, or straight from the heart.

🎤 Pro Tricks from Cherry Pop Events

- Time It: Aim for 1–2 minutes. Short, sweet, and unforgettable.
- Practice: Read aloud 2–3 times. It'll flow smoother than a milkshake at the diner.
- Keep It Secret: Save the final surprise for the aisle—don't share every word with your sweetie in advance.
- Print a Copy: Handwrite or print your vows for the big day. No phones at the alter!

🚫 Vow Don'ts

- Don't overshare private jokes nobody else will get.
- Don't write a novel—guests are there for your love story, not a TED Talk.
- Don't procrastinate—last-minute vows = frazzled nerves.
