

Plan a Wedding THAT'S ACTUALLY YOU

Forget what Pinterest told you. This is your permission slip to stop people-pleasing and start planning a wedding that feels like YOU – not a sponsored photo shoot. This quick-start guide will help you ditch the noise, define your vibe, and build a day that's meaningful, fun, and totally unforgettable (without losing your damn mind).

Step 1: Start with Feelings, Not Flowers

Answer these questions before you look at ANY photos:

What do you want your wedding to feel like?

- ☐ Intimate ☐ Wild ☐ Luxe
☐ Glamorous ☐ Cozy ☐ Retro
☐ Unexpected ☐ Exciting

What do you want people to remember?

- ☐ The food ☐ the vibe
☐ how 'us' it felt ☐ the vows
☐ the dancing ☐ the surprises

Step 2: Define Your Vibe, not the Interweb's

Forget the algorithm. Look at your life: Your clothes, your music, your home, your tiktok likes. Now, fill in the blanks:

Our Go-to date night spot is: _____

The song we dance to in our kitchen is: _____

We're more "Champagne Tower" or "Shot of Tequila"? _____

Our personal style is: _____

One word that describes us as a couple is: _____

Step 3: Pick Moments, Not Just "Aesthetic"

Instead of obsessing over colors or florals first, pick 3-5 moments you care about the most.

Examples:

- ☐ Walking down the aisle to your favorite song ☐ A private vow exchange
☐ A killer late-night snack ☐ A surprise first dance remix ☐ Your dog in a bowtie
☐ Grandma seeing you in your dream outfit

CHERRY POP PRO TIP: Start your planning around the moment, not the menu.

Step 4: Build Around What Matters to You

On the next page, you will find a 'My Wedding Vibe' Matrix to help guide you through the different parts of your wedding to make it completely your own.

MY WEDDING VIBE MATRIX

If it's a "No", don't waste time or money. If it's a "Hell Yes" then prioritize it!

Bonus: Your Planning Pep Talk

Copy this; print it; tattoo it on your heart:

My wedding don't have to be a trend. It has to feel like us. That means choosing what matters, skipping what doesn't, and creating moments we'll actually remember. F*ck the pressure. F*ck the rules. We're doing this our way.
